Come when you can; leave when you must!

Archbishop Gregory J. Hartmayer, OFM Conv. has announced that the suspension of the obligation to attend Sunday Mass has been extended until Monday, September 28, and the suspension will be reviewed again at the end of September.

The Archbishop encourages those who are healthy and are not burdened with the fear of being exposed to the virus to begin returning to Mass and receive the grace of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist.

The Archbishop stated,

"Watching the celebration of the Mass on the computer or TV cannot become a substitute for receiving the sacraments. When ill or in a vulnerable category for being infected or infecting others, the sick person should always remain at home. This pandemic should not make us lazy regarding our spiritual life. Our children are back in school and many people have returned to work outside the home. We still need to be extremely cautious and practice proper protocol. I suspect more of us can return to Sunday or weekday Mass than are currently attending. I am grateful to all our priests and lay faithful for making it possible and safe to attend Mass. I appreciate the patience of our people during this unprecedented time. Please continue to be safe."

El Arzobispo Gregory J. Hartmayer, OFM Conv., anunció el 25 de Agosto que la suspensión de la obligación de asistir a la Misa dominical en la Arquidiócesis de Atlanta ha sido extendida hasta el Lunes, 28 de Septiembre. La suspensión se revisará nuevamente a finales de ese mes.

El Arzobispo anima a aquellos que están sanos y no están agobiados por el temor de estar expuesto al virus a comenzar a regresar a la misa y recibir la gracia de los sacramentos de la reconciliación y la Eucaristía.

“Ver la celebración de la misa en la computadora o en la televisión no puede sustituir la recepción de los sacramentos”, dijo el arzobispo Hartmayer. “Si están enfermos o en una categoría en alto riesgo de contraer o contagiar a otros, las personas enfermas deben permanecer siempre en casa. Esta pandemia no debe volvernos perezosos con respecto a nuestra vida espiritual. Nuestros hijos han regresado a la escuela y muchas personas han vuelto a trabajar fuera de casa. Aún debemos ser extremadamente cautelosos y practicar el protocolo adecuado. Sospecho que muchos más de nosotros podemos regresar a la misa dominical o entre semana de los que estamos asistiendo actualmente. Agradezco a todos nuestros sacerdotes y fieles laicos por hacer que sea posible y seguro asistir de nuevo a la misa y aprecio la paciencia de nuestro pueblo durante este tiempo sin precedentes. Por favor, continúen manteniéndose a salvo”.
